VOLUNTEERING

- COMMUNITY AND FARMING

2024 | Support local community in enhancing agricultural capabilities in Colombia's tropical Andes region.

Worked as a Customer Application Engineer at a startup specializing in RF sensor technology. A veteran from the IDF's Intelligence Gathering Combat unit, as a commander and combat medic. I am a fast and self-learner, ambitious, hard worker, and passionate about my work. Driven by excellence, always looking forward for new challenges and acquiring more knowledge. I am fond of combining my three passions: people, computer science, and music (play piano and saxophone).
